

The fifth death was recorded on Saturday morning after a fuel laden tanker lost control, rammed into a pedestrian and fell by Totowu riverside on Isuti Road, spilling its content into the canal.