Youths of Saint Saviour Street in Ikpoba-Okha local government area have set a tipper ablaze for crushing a five-year- old girl to death.

The victim, Onyinye Chukwugbu, was crossing the road with her uncle from Saint Saviour Street to Upper Sokponba road when she was crushed.

Her uncle, Emmanuel Okoye, said he had already stopped a bus to allow them cross but didn't know where the tipper with full load of sand emerged from.

Emmanuel said he didn't see the driver after the accident.

The disappearance of the driver made the youths set the tipper ablaze.

As at press time, the body of the deceased has been removed by policemen from Ugbekun Police Division.
