

appeared to have seen this book, "Time to Start Think-is economic growth, and when that growth stalls or falls, things tend to take a dark turn. With growing competition for jobs and resources, losers (those he calls the "left-behinds") got here is what Nigeria too is presently grappling with. How the dynamics we now face is handled in the next two years will show the direction Nigeria is heading.

Hit-and-run driver kills LAUTECH student

A 300-Level Accounting student of Ladoke Akintola University of Technology (LAUTECH) in Ogbomoso, Oyo State, has died after a road accident on Ogbomoso-Ilorin highway. Hikmat Abidemi Adeniyi died in the LAUTECH Teaching Hospital after her motorcycle was hit from the rear by a vehicle.

The accident occurred at 7pm on Monday when the late Hikmat was going to visit her friend in Adenike area - a community mostly populated by students. Although, LAUTECH has been on strike for months, private halls of residence built around the school still bubble as some students did not go home.

From Israel Fawole

LAUTECH

Her colleagues were crestfallen when Hikmat was pronounced dead.

An eyewitness, who did not give his name, said the hit-and-run driver did not stop to help the victims after the motorcycle was hit in the rear.

He said: "The driver of the hit-and-run car was reckless, which was why he hit the motorcycle so violently. The rider and the passenger were thrown off the motorcycle after the accident. They were badly injured in the crash. The car driver did not stop to help them. It was passersby who rushed to the scene and helped the victims to the hospital."

CAMPUSLIFE gathered that the motorcycle rider, whose name could not be ascertained at press time, was responding to treatment at the same hospital. But, Hikmat could not survive.

• Continued on page 28

ESSAY FOR UNDERGRADUATES

African Liberty Organisation for Development (ALOD) is calling for entries into its 2017 Adam Smith Essay Contest. The contest is being held in honour of Adam Smith, the late English economist and foremost free market advocate. The essay is organised with the objective to give young people opportunity to study the position of Adam Smith on the market process and dynamics.