Twenty-nine suspects paraded

Police Corporal Iroh Orji, who killed two officials of the Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), has been dismissed.

The Abia State Commissioner of Police, Leye Oyebade, stated this yesterday while parading 29 suspected criminals in Umuahia.

Oyebade, who described Orji's action as inimical to the force's rules, said the command, and the police hierarchy, condemned it.

He said: "The command has put the incident, which wanted to bring disaffection between it and its sister-security agencies, behind it.

"All security agencies in the state have been working in synergy with each other and this ugly incident is capable of creating tension between us."

Orji allegedly shot the officials after a fight broke out between them. The FRSC officials hit the vehicle the wife of speaker of the House of Assembly was travelling in.

But the Speaker, Chikwendu Kalu, denied ordering his police orderly to shoot the deceased.

On the paraded suspects, Oyebade said Peter Okorie Nwaigwe of Afam road, Oyigbo, rs State, a commercial driver, reported that his passengers were robbed at gun point by four men at Isialangwa North, on the Enugu/Port Harcourt Expressway.

 said one of the suspects, Madubuchi Ekeleme of Ubakala in Umuahia South was, pped by one of the passengers while others fled.

his arrest led the police to their hideout at Ubakala, where three other – Bright Iroakazi, izoba Ede and Adaugo Onuoha – were arrested.

Oyebade said his men also rescued Onyemaechi Mbamaonyeukwu Ijeoma, a hotelier, who was abducted, while the suspected kidnappers, who escaped with bullet wounds, was later found dead.

The police boss said the dead suspect, identified as Charles Ndubusis Nwaichi of Eziudo, Ezinihite Mbaise, Imo State, was traced to the Abia State Teaching Hospital, Aba, where he was being treated. He died in the hospital.
