The Nigeria Customs Service, Katsina State Command, has confirmed the killing of two of its officers by suspected robbers.

Spokesman Peter Duniya, who confirmed the killing in an interview with News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Katsina yesterday, said the officers were killed on July 30 while on duty.

He said they were shot dead by people suspected to be robbers on Daura Road, Katsina.

Duniya said the officers were on routine patrol at Dogon-Hawa, near Shargalle, in Dutsi Local Government when they were killed.

The spokesman named the deceased as Assistant Superintendent of Customs Babandi Nuradeen and Chief Superintendent of Customs Maidama Yabo.

"The command has begun investigation into the circumstance leading to the shooting of the officers," he said.

Duniya said the command had deployed officers from the intelligence unit, to unravel the reason for the killing.

A NAN correspondent in Katsina reports that the state has been witnessing robberies.

Security agents recently smashed a gang of cattle rustlers, who had been terrorising herdsmen.
