A 16-YEAR-OLD boy, Ayuba Agboola, was on Monday lynched to death at Imota, Ikorodu, for allegedly stealing an engine block.

The incident occurred around 10pm at Ogunyombo Street, Imota.

It was gathered that the teenager was beaten to a coma and died at a hospital where he was taken to.

The deceased's father, Musibau Agboola, who reported the incident to the police, accused Sesan Adebola, 20, Samuel Ajejiowon, 20, Akeem Limina, 22, Sunday 23 and Olanike Jenyo, 20 of committing the act.

Confirming the incident, the command's spokesman, Olarinde Famous-Cole, an Assistant Superintendent of Police (ASP) said the suspects had been arrested and detained.

He said: "The scene of the crime was visited and photographs were taken. The corpse was deposited at Ikorodu General Hospital mortuary for autopsy. Investigation is ongoing."
