Policemen attached to the Ijanikin Division, Ojo, a Lagos suburb, yesterday killed a robbery suspect in a gun duel. Arms and ammunition were recovered from him.

It was gathered that the suspect was a member of a five-man gang, which operated with a motorcycle with registration number LAR929VW.

They were said to have held residents of Oto/Awori hostage before a patrol team stormed the area.

It was learnt that a gun duel ensued which led to the death of one of the suspects. Others fled with gunshot wounds.

Confirming the incident, the command's spokesman, Olarinde Famous-Cole, an Assistant Superintendent of Police (ASP) said two locally made pistols with five unexpended cartridges were recovered.

He said the suspects also abandoned their motorcycle, which the police also recovered.

"The corpse has been evacuated to Badagry General Hospital Morgue for autopsy. Effort is being made to arrest other fleeing hoodlums," said Famous-Cole.
