Wike: SARS behind Rivers kidnapping, robbery

Rivers State Governor Nyesom Wike yesterday alleged that most of the kidnapping and robbery in the state are perpetrated by operatives of the Special Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS).

The governor said the Rivers State Special Anti-robbery Squad (SARS) has been indicted by an official police signal.

Addressing reporters at the Government House, Wike claimed that the SARS commander was planted in the state to sabotage the security architecture and create an atmosphere of fear.

The governor said the criminal activities of SARS operatives were uncovered by the Inspector General of Police X Squad, Abuja, deployed in the state, adding that the squad foiled the attempted kidnap of Mr Azumana Ifeanyi on Monday at the GRA, Port Harcourt.

The official police signal provided by the governor, with the title: "Police Wireless Message " and Reference DTO: 121030/09/2017 —INGENPOL-X-FHQ ABUJA TO-INGENPOL SEC ABUJA, noted that the squad received a distress call on the kidnap of Ifeanyi and swung into action.

According to the signal, they met three SARS operatives robbing and a gun duel ensued. The operatives allegedly took Ifeanyi to a Fidelity Bank ATM where they compelled him to withdraw N500,000 as ransom.

The governor said one of the SARS operatives was killed, while Inspector Justice Nyeche, who led the IGP team, was injured.

Wike said: "Most of the kidnapping and armed robbery taking place in this state are done by men of SARS. They use exhibit vehicles to operate. As the chief security officer of the state, you complain, but they choose to play politics with crime.

"They fight crime in some state, but they refuse to fight crime in Rivers State. We are done with the elections, but they are using SARS to create insecurity in the state.

“As I speak with you, they will deny. But the SARS operative, who was killed, was among those who raided the Rivers East Senatorial District Collation Centre. This man can be identified in the video as one of those who invaded the collation centre with Fakorede.

“I have never seen a country where they politicise crime. It is obvious that they want to give the impression that Rivers State is unsafe. They want to instil fear preparatory to declaring during the elections that they is so much killing.

“Authorities deliberately trying to destroy a state and you want the people to be happy. I will no longer write. Now is the time to take my case to the public, for the world to know what is happening.”

The governor said his administration has invested more than any other in security logistics, yet the police work against the state.
