Court acquits five as police conspiracy is exposed

An Igbosere Magistrates' Court, Lagos, yesterday acquitted five indigenes of Ilagbo community, Ibeju-Lekki, who were wrongly charged with murder by the police.

Segun Salami, Samson Abimbola, Sikiru Egunjemi, Aliu Egunjemi and Jimoh Ogunnupe were alleged to have killed two prominent members of the community – Suliamon Akewusola and Salami Musiliu a.k.a Mantanle – in May, by the Force Criminal Investigation and Intelligence Department (FCIID).

They were arraigned on August 15 before Magistrate Awoyele Oshin and remanded in prison custody.

At the resumed hearing, defendants' counsel Sadiku Ibitayo told the court that the investigating team from FCIID conspired to accuse them.

He said the Homicide Department of the State Criminal Investigation and Intelligence Department (SCIID), Panti-Yaba carried out a thorough investigation, and found out the real suspects.

But, according to him, a few days to their arraignment, CSP Chike and ASP Attah from the FCIID swooped in.

He said: "The investigation had unravelled Hammed Sanwo, Adebola, Alfa Jabaru, Tosin Adenuga, Muro Yusuf and Muse Arashi as the real suspects but the officers mentioned above whisked the file to Abuja.

“In a shameful twist of event, the real suspects were substituted for Segun Salami, Samson Abimbola, Sikiru Egunjemi, Aliu Egunjemi and Jimoh Ogunnupe after detaining them for over two months.

“In an attempt to salvage the situation, I petitioned the Office of the Inspector-General of Police (IGP) on August 21, demanding that the FCIID team from Area 10, Abuja, be investigated and dissolved for their repeated miscarriage of justice.

“That the IG should look into the murder of Salami Musili and Suliaman Akeushola and the case of arson committed in Orinyarin.

“The case file was sent to the Office of Attorney General of Lagos. The Director Public Prosecution (DPP), after a careful review, exposed the copious atrocities committed by the officers with the connivance of some money bags sponsoring the killings in the community.

“Reading through the legal advice, it was obvious the criminal/killer swap perfected by the police was premeditated, deliberate and executed.

“Paragraph 6 of the Legal Advice read: There are sufficient facts in the duplicate case file to establish a prima facie case of conspiracy to commit murder and murder contrary to Sections 233 and 223 of the Criminal Law of Lagos State, 2015, against Hammed Sanwo, Tosin Adenuga and Muro Yusuf, for the murder of Suliamon Akewusola;

“Also, against Alfa Jabaru, Muro Yusuf, Muse Arashi and Hammed Sanwo for the murder of Salami Musiliaka Mantanle. The police are to be advised to ensure the arrest of the named suspects to be charged by this office in the High Court.

“In view of the above, this office shall not prosecute Sikiru Egunjemi, Aliu Agunrege Egunjimi, Segun Salami, Samson Abimbola and Jimoh Ogunnupe for any offence as there are insufficient facts to establish their conspiracy in any of the crimes, the suspects should be released if still in custody.”

After reading the report of the DPP, Magistrate A.F.O Botoku discharged and acquitted the defendants.
