

another insurgent and recovered an AK-47 rifle from him.

"On October 7, following a tip-off from the locals on the presence of suspected Boko Haram terrorists and cattle rustlers at Kirbiri village, Gujba Local Government Area of Yobe State, troops of 120 Battalion, in conjunction with vigilantes, mobilised to the general area.

"The troops engaged the terrorists, neutralised one of them while others fled with injuries. "An AK-47 rifle (34364) and two empty rifle magazines were recovered from them".
