Niger State Police Command has nabbed two suspects in connection with the death of a paint dealer in Bosso Local Government.

Commissioner of Police Mr. Austine Agbonlahor told News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Minna yesterday that the suspects, who are brothers, were arrested on Monday evening.

He alleged that they attacked the paint dealer and beat him to death in his shop near Living Faith Church, Bosso, on Monday morning.

Agbonlahor said investigation had begun, adding that the suspects will be arraigned.

He said the command was taking measures to tackle security threat.

“We have deployed plain-clothes security personnel in crime-prone areas to arrest hoodlums,” the commissioner said.

He urged residents to assist the command with information that will help in arresting bad elements.
