One person died and two injured as gunmen attacked Garo in Kabo Local Government Area of Kano State, yesterday.

An eyewitness, Abdulmumuni Abubakar Tsanyawa, said the gunmen allegedly came for a businessman. They raided and burnt five shops, destroying property worth millions of naira.

According to Tsanyawa, the attack, which started about 11 pm, forced residents to flee to safety.

Police spokesman Musa Magaji Majiya said: "Some robbers invaded Garo town in Kabo council. Their motive was to attack a businessman in the area but unfortunately, he was not around.

"They thus resorted to raiding shops and burning them. Five shops were burnt.

"When we received the distress call, crack policemen were drafted to the scene and one of the robbers was killed. Two others were injured."

Majiya added that investigation has begun.
