

Four feared dead in fresh herdsman attack

ABOUT four persons are feared dead after suspected Fulani herdsmen attacked Uvir in Guma Local Government Area of Benue State yesterday.

A member of Uvir council ward, James Igbudu, told The Nation that the herdsmen have taken over Tse Dugeri and Tse Jem Mtsor.

They killed Alex Mtsor and his body had been recovered and deposited in the mortuary.

According to him, the villages are at the mercy of the invaders as there are no security agents to challenge them.

Police spokesman Moses Yamu said he was not aware of the situation.

"You are just telling me, am now in town," he said.

Yamu added that he was away at Zaki Biam in Ukum Local Government Area where another bloody communal clash happened.

Umahi signs N208b budget