

Special squad arrest policeman's killer

■ Ebele BONIFACE ■

OPERATIVES of the Inspector General of police Intelligence Squad Team (IRT) have nabbed a member of the kidnap gang that shot dead one of their team members on the 2nd of February 2018 while in service.

The late Sergeant Tom Mohammed of IRT on first of February 2017, at about 7.30am were in Nassarawa Toto Local Government Area of Nassarawa State on investigation of a kidnapping case but ran into an ambush by suspected Fulani herdsmen who were about to kidnap a white foreign national that was being driven in a white van.

It was learnt the IRT operatives engaged the kidnappers in a shootout and foiled their dastard mission.

The bullet-ridden body of the late policeman was later discovered after a search was carried out in the forest.