

Two nabbed for alleged murder of driver

Posted By: Okungbowa Aiwerie On: February 14, 2018 In: News, News Update

0

Officers of the Ogwashi-Uku Police Division have arrested two suspects for complicity in the murder of a Delta Line Bus driver.

The Nation learnt that the victim was killed between Adonte and Ubulu-Unor communities in Aniocha South Local Government of Delta State and his vehicle stolen.

It was gathered that the driver was allegedly lured to a lonely community road where he was killed.

The police said the prime suspect was Augustine Uwafili, 26.

Sources said the suspect, now on the run, chartered the vehicle from Delta Line Park in Ozoro, Isoko North Council.

They said the vehicle was found at a spray painter's workshop in Ogwashi-Uku, adding that the painter was arrested.

The Nation learnt that the suspect led the police to an accomplice, Otonokpo, the deceased's colleague.

The police said they exhumed the remains of the driver from a shallow grave in a bush.

Police spokesman Andrew Aniamaka, who confirmed the incident, said the suspects had been transferred to the State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID) for investigations, adding that they would be arraigned after.