

At Odighi and Odiguete community in Ovia North East local government, herdsmen were said to have invaded the community yesterday and killed two persons.

Other persons who were wounded in the attack were taken to the Benin Central hospital for treatment.

Edo Police Commissioner, Johnson Kokumo, could not be reached for comments as his calls were unanswered.