Four persons died in last Thursday's accident in Oke-Ose, Ilorin, Kwara State.

The victims are three Mass Communication students of the Kwara State Polytechnic and a taxi driver. They died instantly.

Eyewitnesses said the accident involved a truck and a taxi. The students were in the taxi.

A candle light procession was held on Friday in honour of the deceased.

The students appealed to the government to ensure that the road construction going on in the vicinity is completed early. They urge traffic officials to control the situation pending completion of the project.
