

Suspected robbers kill vigilance group leader

SUSPECTED robbers have killed the leader of a vigilance group at Umusam quarters, Kwale, in Ndokwa West, Delta State, Mr. Peter Johnson.

A source, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said the deceased, 54, was shot dead, about 6 pm, on

From Polycarp Orosevwotu,
Ughelli

Tuesday while riding a motorcycle.

Police spokesman Andrew Aniamaka, who confirmed the incident, said the deceased was shot in the right rib on Izugbe Road, Kwale.

Aniamaka, who said the identities of the hoodlums were yet to be ascertained, added that the deceased was not on duty when he was killed.

He said: "We have begun investigation into the incident."

Man arraigned for possessing Indian hemp