For allegedly stabbing a man to death with a broken bottle, Shakiru Akinsanya, was Yesterday remanded in prison on the orders of an Ebute Meta Magistrates' Court, Lagos.

Akinsanya, 23, is facing a charge of murder.

Prosecuting Inspector Julius Babatope, told the court that the offence was committed on March 25 at Oto Transformer, off Oke Ira-Nla in Ajah on Lagos-Epe Expressway.

Suddenly in the heat of an argument, the accused brought out a bottle of Chelsea dry gin and stabbed the deceased on his leg and bled to death, he said.

"The accused was later caught in Ijebu-Ode in Ogun where he absconded to."

Magistrate A.O. Adebite directed that the accused should remain in prison pending advice from the State Director of Public Prosecutions (DPP).

She adjourned the case till June 4.
