

Nonagenarian, five others feared dead in Delta land dispute

SIX persons, including a 95-year-old community leader, Chief Gabriel Nzekwe, are feared dead in renewed land dispute between Obeche-Inyi and Umuinyagbo Quarters in Inyi clan of Ndokwa East in Delta State.

From Okungbowa Aiwerie,

Asaba

Obeche and Umuinyagbo are two of the five quarters that make up Inyi clan.

It was gathered that the fate of the nonagenarian and five others, who were allegedly abducted at the weekend by youths from Umuinyagbo, remained unclear last night.

Both communities had enjoyed relative peace, following a deal brokered in 2016 by Delta Deputy Speaker Friday Osanebi.
