Police exhume body of robbery victim

From Osagie Otabor, Benin

MEN of Edo State Police Command have exhumed the body of Moses Ikiri, a commercial motorcyclist, who was killed and buried in a shallow grave at a forest in Okada, Ovia North East Local Government.

The late Ikiri was killed by his passenger, Sunday Onoja, 23. The police forensic team were led to the spot where he was buried by Sunday.

Onoja was said to have hired Moses to take him to inspect his farm at Okada.

Addressing reporters, Onoja said he could not explain why he killed and buried Moses. He said he used a wood to hit his victim on the head and buried him in a cocoa farm after which he fled with his motorcycle.

Onoja claimed he hid the motorcycle and didn't sell it before he was arrested.
