

Last Saturday, a medicine store owner was killed on Igbei Street in Auchi, while a generator mechanic was killed in Etsako West Local Government Area.

The killings caused chaos, which led to the deployment of a combined team of armed policemen and vigilantes to restore law and order in the affected areas.