

Boy, 19, charged with murder

THE police yesterday arraigned a 19-year-old man before an Ebute Metta Chief Magistrates' Court for allegedly stabbing a colleague to death with a screw-driver.

Police prosecutor Chinalu Uwadione said the accused committed the offence on August 27 at Alaba Bus stop in Amukoko.

He alleged that the accused stabbed 18-year-old Musa Bili on his chest with a screwdriver.

The accused pleaded not guilty.

Chief Magistrate A. O. Adedayo ordered that he be remanded at the Borstal Correctional Institute, Adigbe in Abeokuta.

The chief magistrate directed the prosecutor to take the case file to the Director of Public Prosecutions (DPPs) for advice.

She adjourned till September 17.
