

Court remands man for allegedly killing woman

AN Ile-Ife Magistrates' Court, Osun, yesterday, ordered the remand of 50-year-old man, Akintilebo Akinwumi.

He was allegedly arraigned for shooting Blessing Fagbemigbe to death.

The prosecutor, Insp. Christian Olajide, told the court the accused also attempted to kill three others; Samson Ogekakin, Eluyera Lekan, and Chukwu Felix.

The Magistrate, Muhibah Olatunji, who did not take the plea of the accused, ordered that Akinwumi be remanded because her court lacked the jurisdiction to hear the case.

Olajide told the court the accused committed the offences on September 5, at 5:30 pm, at Ita-Akogun Street, Ile-Ife.

He noted that the offences contravened sections 316, 319 (1) and 320 (1), Laws of Osun, 2002.

The magistrate adjourned the case till October 2 for mention.
