

Boko Haram terrorists kill seven in Borno

SEVEN persons died when Boko Haram insurgents raided and burnt three villages in Konduga Local Government of Borno State.

According to News Agency of Nigeria (NAN), the insurgents attacked Dalori, Kaleri and Amarwa in a two-hour operation, from about 9 pm.

Eyewitnesses said the insurgents shot indiscriminately,

• Insurgents burn three villages

looted food items before setting the villages on fire.

Security sources said the insurgents were sighted on motorcycles at the Alau General Area.

"We suddenly started seeing fire from Dalori, Kaleri and Amarwa, followed by continuous gunshots from this general area. The Alfa jet was quickly deployed in the scene but the insurgents had taken over the villages by then," one of the security sources said.

Goni Kachalla, a resident of Amarwa, said the insurgents were shooting, with people fleeing in all directions.

The insurgents also looted, shouting Allahu Akbar.

"I am yet to locate my relatives," Kachalla added.

Another victim, Usma Gre-

NLC condemns murder of aid w