

Confusion over boy's death in Ondo

Posted By: Damisi Ojo, Akure On: October 22, 2018 In: News, News Update

0

The mysterious death of a seven-year-old pupil of St George's Primary School, Okeagbe-Akoko, Ondo State, Olumide Olumilua, is causing confusion in the community.

The Divisional Police Officer (DPO) in Okeagbe-Akoko, Adetaranmi Ibitayo, said a case of missing child was reported.

He said a search group discovered the body the second day at Aje Quarters, adding that the hands were tied with a rope.

The Nation learnt that the deceased lived with his grandmother, as his parents had divorced.