Woman dies after taking pregnancy concoction

A woman identified simply as Adebisi has allegedly died after taking a concoction given to her by her mother, following her inability to conceive children.

The incident happened penultimate Saturday at Ibara Orile in Abeokuta North Local Government Area of Ogun State.

The 37-year-old deceased, according to sources had been married to her husband called Muiyiwa since 2017, without a child.

The deadly concoction, was said to have been given to the deceased by her mother, identified simply as Iya Bisi.

Sources said Adebisi's husband accompanied her to her mother's residence in the town where she took the concoction.

The deceased was said to have complained of stomach ache minutes after taking the bottled concoction.

Adebisi, according to sources, died about an hour after battling with the stomach to no avail.

Her mother was said to have confessed that she collected the concoction from one Aduke, a bean cake seller at Oke Afin area of Abeokuta.

It was learnt that the incident was not reported to the police.
