

Policeman found dead in pit in Delta

 by Okungbowa Aiwerie, Asaba November 7, 2018

A 51 year old police officer, Inspector Samuel Onwueriegho has been found dead in Pit, along Ekwuoma road, near Owerri-Olubor, Ika North East L.G.A.

The Nation gathered that the deceased policeman, whose decomposing body was found Monday night, attached to 22 Police Mobile Force (PMF),Lagos.

It remains unclear how the deceased ended up in a pit after he left his Dominion Estate home, at Iyana – Iyesi Ogun State on 13 September 2018,

A source told The Nation gathered that the wife of the deceased, Joy, reportedly told family members that her husband left without informing her.

It was learnt that a relative Joel Obuseh, lodged a complaint that the deceased dropped by his home en-route Ubulu-Uku on September 14 at about 1.00 a.m.

The wife of the deceased policeman organised a search party on September 20th after receiving information that her husband was seen in Delta State.

A search revealed the victim in a pit.

A police source confirmed that the remains was discovered “without external injuries on the body”.

The corpse has been deposited at a mortuary for autopsy while investigation is ongoing, the source added.