Taraba State Police Command yesterday recorded another success in its war against robbery and terrorism.

It killed three suspected robbers and injured many.

Speaking to The Nation on WhatsApp, Commissioner David Akinremi said the robbers were a syndicate, who mounted a roadblock in a village in Bali Local Government.

He said one of the criminals was killed during crossfire with the police, adding that two died while trying to escape.

The police boss said: "Today (yesterday) about 0930hrs, information was received that a gang of robbers were operating on Kwassa feeder road in Bali Local Government. "
