

'Ritual killers' invade Delta communities

SUSPECTED ritual killers have invaded communities in Delta State.

Yesterday, the body of a child believed to be about two-year-old was found in Abraka.

The incident occurred less

From Bolaji Ogundele, Warri

than 24 hours after a similar murder was carried out in Oghara.

In the Abraka incident, the suspected ritualists dumped the remains of the child at Umono Street, with his diaper stained with blood.

Police confirmation could be obtained last night.

Commissioner Alhaji Muhammed Mustafa said he was yet to be briefed.

Policemen have evacuated the remains of the child to the mortuary.
