ADO Odo community in Ogun State was thrown into mourning penultimate Monday, after a youth, Sola Odunaro, was allegedly beaten to death by two friends identified as Azees and Tunde, during a scuffle. The incident happened at about 9 am.

It was learnt that the scuffle broke out between the deceased and Azees during an altercation.

Sources told The Nation that it was during the scuffle that Tunde aka Killer allegedly joined his friend, Azees to beat Sola to death. The duo allegedly fled the scene when they realised that Sola was no longer breathing.

A source who asked not be named, said: "Bystanders rushed to the scene in order to save Sola from the grip of the suspects, but it was too late. He died before people could reach the scene to save him from his assailants."

Contacted, the spokesman of Ogun State Police Command, Mr. Abimbola Oyeyemi promise to revert to our correspondent. But he did not do so at press time.
