

parties, Justice Idris added.

Woman, 40, dies during scuffle in Ondo community

From Damisi Ojo, Akure

A SCUFFLE between two tenants on Ogo Street, Arigidi-Akoko in Ondo State has led to the death of a woman, Mrs Foluke Olanipekun.

It was learnt that there was protracted misunderstanding between two families, said to be living at the same street, Arigidi, Akoko North West Local Government Area.

The feuding families reportedly faced each other in a free for all in the night.

An eyewitness said the altercation took a new dimension when Mrs Olanipekun allegedly slumped and died during the scuffle.

The deceased housewife, aged 40, was described as an easy-going woman by sympathisers.

Her remains were said to have been deposited at Ikare State Specialist Hospital mortuary, while Mrs Morenikeji Bello, 27, and her two children who were involved in the attack of the late Mrs Olanipekun, had been arrested.

The Divisional Police Officer (DPO) for Okeagbe-Akoko, Ibitayo Adetanranmi, a Superintendent of Police (SP), said the suspects would soon be transferred to Akure, the state capital.