Troops kill more Boko Haram terrorists in Borno

THE Army said yesterday that troops inflicted heavy casualty on fleeing Boko Haram terrorists after an attack at Gajigana in Monguno Local Government Area of Borno State last Saturday.

In a statement by its Deputy Director of Public Relations, Colonel Ado Isa, the Army said the troops recovered weapons from the terrorists.

The statement reads: "Following the Boko Haram Terrorists (BHTs) attack on Gajigana yesterday (Saturday, February 16) at 1850 hours (6.50 p.m) and successfully repelled and fatally dealt with by the gallant troops deployed at Gajigana Forward Operating Base (FOB), an early hours exploitation operation was conducted today (February 17) through their withdrawal

From Blessing Olaifa, Abuja route to mob up and clear the general area of the remnant elements of the BHTs.

"During the exploits, it was confirmed that members of the BHTs suffered heavy casualty based on the splits and flow of bloods around the parapets and the tracks where their dead were dragged away through the escape route.

"Items recovered along the route includes: one 36 hand grenade, five 60 millimetre (mm) mortar rounds, 13 X 12.7mm rounds, 142 X 7.62mm rounds, one AK-47 magazine and a night vision goggle.

"Based on the occurrence, the Acting General Officer Commanding (GOC), 7 Division of Nigerian Army and Commander, Sector 1, Operation Lafiya Dole, Brig.-Gen. Abdulmalik Bulama Biu and his team visited the location on February 17 to assess the situation and the success of the operation.

"General Bulama addressed the troops and saluted their fighting spirit. He urged them to maintain the momentum with assurance that the division would promptly support them at all times.

"In that regards, the troops were replenished with more ammunitions and other logistic support on behalf of the Chief of Army Staff (COAS), Lt.-Gen. Tukur Yusuf Buratai, to boost their morale and efforts in the fight against terrorism and insurgency."
