

Woman held for lover's death

From Ernest Nwokolo,
Abeokuta

THE police in Ogun State have arrested a woman, Aderonke Ayinde, for allegedly dumping the body of her lover in a bush.

Aderonke, 45, was arrested on Wednesday. Her arrest followed a report of her alleged offence at the Oke-Itoku Police Station by Mr. Makinde Ishola, who informed the police that he received information indicating that a man identified as Asimiu Abiodun visited the suspect at her home at I, Asalu Compound, Abeokuta, but the man died at night in a "questionable circumstance."

Police spokesman Abimbola Oyeyemi, who made this known to reporters in a statement, said Makinde reported that the suspect took the remains of the deceased to a nearby bush that night and dumped it there, unknown to her that someone had seen her.