

One dead, two injured in street fight

ONE person has died and two injured in a street fight in a community in Yola, the Adamawa State capital.

The Nation learnt yesterday that the incident occurred at Jambutu in Yola North Local Government on Tuesday night during a clash among youths returning home from a party.

Police spokesman Othman

From Onimisi Alao, Yola

Abubakar, who confirmed the incident, named the deceased as John Jada.

"Youths returning from a night outing engaged one another in a fight at Rumde Baru in Jambutu. One John Jada was injured and he later died," Abubakar said.