An Ilorin Magistrates' Court has remanded a herdsman, Sulieman Adamu, for alleged murder.

Magistrate Mariam Yahaya, who did not take the plea of the accused, therefore ordered that he be remanded at Oke-Kura Prison, Ilorin.

She ordered the police to return the case file to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

Yahaya adjourned the case till May 24 for further mention.

Prosecuting Sergeant Abegunde Elijah told the court that the accused was arrested following the information received from the deceased's brother, Mustapha Abubakar.

Elijah said when a search was conducted in the house of the accused, police recovered a Dane gun, a locally made cut to size revolver pistol, six cartridges and two pairs of rubber shoes.

He said investigation showed that the accused person allegedly killed Abdulkareem Musa in his home at Dutsi Camp in Moro Local Government Area of Kwara State.

The prosecution said the offence contravened Section 221 of Penal Code Law.
