

Seven killed in Kogi attack

by James Azania, Lokoja June 27, 2019

Seven people were reportedly killed in an overnight attack by suspected herdsmen in Koto-Karfe, Kogi Local Government Area of Kogi State.

The attack took place in the early hours of Tuesday.

A source said the suspected herdsmen launched two separate attacks from the surrounding hills.

Three people were said to have died on the spot.

The suspected herdsmen were said to have been armed with AK47 rifles and other dangerous weapons.

Read Also: Drug abuse in Kogi worrisome, says CP

The Sole Administrator of the council, Muhammed Tanko said security agents in the state are on the top of the situation.

Kogi State Police Command spokesman William Ayah said the command was yet to be briefed on the development.

