

HOME NEWS POLITICS COLUMNISTS BUSINESS EDITORIAL SPORTS HEALTHENTERTAINMENT MAGAZINE EDUCATION ONLINE SPECIAL FORUM

Police arrest corporal for 'killing man'

by Our Reporter — June 28, 2019 in City Beats, Crime Diary, News Update0

The Police Command in Enugu State has arrested a cop for allegedly killing a middle-aged man at Inyi community in Oji River Local Government Area of the state.

Police spokesman Ebere Amaraizu, a Superintendent (SP) said the incident happened on Tuesday.

Amarazu said the Commissioner of Police (CP) Sulaiman Balarabe, expressed displeasure on the unfortunate incident.

“Corporal Peter Anor on duty at a commercial bank located at Inyi community had hit one Sunday Arinze, 28, from Umuchime Village in Inyi Community with a stick. Arinze became unconscious and was rushed to Genesis Foundation Hospital, Inyi, where he was confirmed dead,” he said.

Read Also: Police arrest 53 suspected cultists in Anambra

He said the commissioner had directed an investigation into the incident to ensure that justice prevailed, as he promised during his visit to the area shortly after the unfortunate incident.

“Corporal Anor is helping the operatives of the homicide unit of the state Criminal Investigations Department (SCID) in their investigations,” he said.

Tags: Enugu State Nigeria News Nigerian Newspaper The Nation newspaper

Previous Post

NAFDAC suspends implementation of new tariffs

Next Post

Man fakes own kidnap in Bauchi

Discussion about this post