

Kogi: Gunmen kill 24-year-old student by James Azania, Lokoja September 29, 2019 in City Beats, Featured, News Update

Yet-to-be identified gunmen have allegedly killed a fresh student of the Department of Community Health, College of Health Sciences and Technology, Idah, Kogi State, Sule Moses.

The 24-year old student was allegedly attacked and killed by the unknown gunmen on Thursday, at a private hostel, located behind the school.

The college provost, Dr Nuhu Anyegeu, described the attack on the student as 'inconceivable and shocking and called on the police to do a thorough investigation to bring the killers to justice.

In a statement on Saturday, the provost expressed regret over the death of the deceased, who he described as "a promising young man."

Read Also: Ekiti varsity student 'kills' boyfriend over hair money

He appealed for calm and cooperation, particularly among the students of the institution, explaining that the incident was immediately reported at the Idah Police Station and that the deceased has since been buried in his home town in Dekina LGA of Kogi, amidst weeping and wailing by students of the institution.

The Kogi State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), William Anya, however said he was not aware of the incidence, but promised to find out and get back to our reporter.

As at the time of filing this report, the police spokesman was yet to get back to our reporter.