

One dead in Ondo crash

...Others hospitalised

November 13, 2019

Damisi Ojo, Akure

An Abuja-Lagos bound Sienna commercial bus yesterday lost control between Iboropa-Akoko and Ugbe in Akoko Northeast Local Government Area of Ondo State and rammed into a tree, resulting in the death of one passenger.

Confirming the incident, the Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC) Ikare Akoko Unit Commander, Yinka Akande, attributed it to over speeding by the driver.

He said his men rushed to the scene for rescue operation, adding that the body was deposited at the mortuary and the injured were taken to hospital.

Read Also: FRSC urges road users to obey traffic rules

Contacted, the Chief Medical Director (CMD), State Specialist Hospital, Ikare-Akoko, Dr. Wale Oguntuase, confirmed that a body was brought to the hospital, while others who sustained injuries were receiving treatment.

Previous Post

Sexual harassment: Some unanswered questions

post

Discussion about this

Next Post

Lagos to increase patronage of local boat manufacturers