Kidnappers of female students caught, lynched in Bayelsa

Victims rescued unhurt

December 3, 2019

Mike Odiegwu, Yenagoa

The gunmen, who abducted three female students of the Bayelsa State College of Health Technology have been caught and lynched by a mob.

It was gathered that the assailants were caught in the evening on Tuesday and lynched by an angry mob at Ogbia Town, Ogbia Local Government Area of the state.

A student, who spoke in confidence, said the female victims were recovered unhurt and taken to the police station at Ogbia town.

Read Also: Police kill notorious armed robber in Abia

"We dont know how they were caught. But two of them have been lynched at Ogbia Town. The girls were fortunate nothing happened to them. They were taken to a police station at Ogbia", she said.

Confirming the incident, the Police Public Relation Officer (PPRO), Buswat Asinim, confirmed the development saying the victims were in good condition.