

Bandits kill two in Niger

December 24, 2019 in Uncategorized

0

The police in Niger State have confirmed that gunmen killed two people at Kawure village in Shiroro Local Government on Sunday.

Police Commissioner Mr. Adamu Usman said that the gunmen came on more than 15 motorcycles to attack the village at about 8am.

"An old man, Gajere of about 65 years, a market chief and one Anatu, 46, first sighted the bandits and raised the alarm.

READ ALSO: Nigeria may lose Niger Republic's \$665m yearly energy cash

"The gunmen have camps in Rigeya and Shalope, which are mountainous in Chikun Local Government Area of Kaduna State. They came to the village on motorcycles," he said.

Usman said that the command and military had launched a manhunt to track the attackers.

"We are doing everything possible to bring those behind the incident to justice," he added.

He appealed to rural communities to report to the nearest security agency, any person or group of people with questionable character for prompt security response.

Previous Post
Ondo APC: we welcome reconciliation
Next Post
How Sanwo-Olu can succeed