

Pregnant woman crushed to death in Delta accident

January 12, 2020

From Okungbowa Aiwerie, Asaba

A pregnant woman was on Saturday crushed to death by a Delta Line Hiace bus along the Onitsha-Asaba expressway by Coker Junction, in Oshimili South L.G.A, Delta State.

The incident occurred when the deceased stood on the median awaiting an opportunity to cross the road. The Nation gathered that the Delta Line bus with the registration number DT273B2B had a failed brake and rammed into the woman.

READ ALSO: Yuletide: Lagos residents hail FRSC

It was learnt that the deceased was with another man on the same spot when the accident occurred but the man escaped.

Eyewitnesses said the driver took to his heels when the accident occurred for fear of being lynched. Officials of the Federal Road Safety Corp (FRSC) had a hectic time evacuating the bus and the corpse from the scene.

Previous Post

FG committed to infrastructure development, says minister

Next Post

INEC: No winners will be declared in violent polls

Discussion about this post

Popular