

BREAKING: Two burnt to death in Kogi accident

January 13, 2020 in News, News Update

0

James Azania, Lokoja

At least two persons were confirmed dead in motor accident that occurred about 4pm on Monday, along the Felele axis of the Lokoja-Abuja highway.

It was gathered that the incident involved a cement laden truck, which was on its way from Obajana, in Kogi State, and other vehicles

According to an eye witness the truck said to be heading towards the north experienced brake failure on descent around Felele, crashing into the road median.

Two persons, including the driver and the truck boy were burnt beyond recognition.