

A representative of the EFCC, improve its collaboration with the Man, 22, remanded for 'killing' son

A MAGISTRATES' Court in Makurdi yesterday ordered that a 22-year-old farmer, Aondona Angur, be remanded in a Federal Correctional Centre for allegedly killing his two-year-old son.

Magistrate Erdoo Ter did not take the defendant's plea.

She ordered the police to return the case file to the Benue Director of Public Prosecutions (DPP) and adjourned the case until March 4.

The Prosecution Counsel, Sgt. Regina Ishaya, told the court that the case was reported on January 11 by one Sechivir Aondona.

Ishaya alleged that Angur beat up her two-year-old son.

The prosecutor said the child died while receiving treatment at the General Hospital, Vandeikya, Benue, adding that the farmer was arrested and during investigation confessed to committing the crime.

Ishaya said investigation into the matter was ongoing and prayed the court for another date for mention.

She said the offence contravened the provisions of Section 222 of the Penal Code Law of Benue, 2004.

Katsina demolishes bandits' detention cells