

2

Robbers lynched in Bayelsa

TWO suspected armed robbers, who specialised in robbing Points of Sales (POS) have been caught, butchered and burnt by an irate mob in Yenagoa, Bayelsa State.

It was gathered that the two suspects were caught at Green Villa in Biogbolo suburb in Yenagoa while robbing a POS-enabled cash centre.

They were reportedly killed by

From Mike Odiegwu, Yenagoa

the mob with their remains dumped in their car and set ablaze.

A source, who witnessed the incident said: "Armed robbers and thieves were caught, butchered and burnt in their car at Green villa Road, Biogbolo, Yenagoa, Bayelsa State.

"Luck ran out of the two criminals who went to rob a POS at is not a different town from Aye-nal Justice Law," the judge said.

Green Villa Road, Biogbolo, Yenagoa, with a Lexus Car. They were caught, butchered and burnt alongside the Lexus car they came with".

When contacted, the Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Asanim Butswat, confirmed the incident and condemned the mob action.

He said investigations were ongoing to unravel the circumstances that led to the incident.

Man arraigned over N3.9m cashew nuts 'fraud'