TWO pupils lost their lives on Wednesday while two others sustained serious injuries when an overhead water tank fell inside their classroom in Royal Kings Foundation Nursery and Primary School, Nkpor-Agu in Idemili North Local Government Area of Anambra State.

The tank of about 800 gallons capacity filled with water fell from its high stand into the classroom.

The Nation gathered that the victims, three boys and a girl were immediately rushed to the hospital, where two of them were confirmed dead.

Confirming the incident, police spokesperson, Haruna Mohammed said the Commissioner of Police, John Abang had already commiserated with parents of the victims.

He said he had also ordered for a discreet investigation to ascertain circumstances surrounding the incident.
