

Truck crushes policeman to death over N50

February 13, 2020

From Damian Duruiheoma, Owerri

A truck conveying chippings on Wednesday crushed a police officer on stop and search duty to death along Owerri-Okigwe Expressway in Imo State.

The incident, which occurred at Atta in the Ikeduru Local Government Area of the state, caused panic in the area.

Police officers were at the scene when our correspondent visited.

Read Also: 17-year-old housewife ‘stabs husband to death’ in Katsina

The incident caused heavy traffic gridlock on the expressway as people surged to the scene of the incident.

The body of the police officer was seen on the ground, but gun wielding police operatives did not allow people to come close.

Previous Post

Passengers' excitement high on speed train

Next Post

Edo traditional ruler's wife, daughter abducted

Discussion about this post

Popular

Arts & Life

Monday

Tuesday