

One feared dead, vehicles vandalised as pupils clash in Ibadan

A PUPIL of IMG Grammar School, Oke-Bola, Ibadan, Oyo

State was yesterday feared dead, while some others were injured during a clash between pupils of the school and those of Oke-Bola Comprehensive High School.

Some pupils of the two schools, which are located on the same street, are suspected to be members of rival cults, making them to clash.

From Bisi Oladele, Ibadan

regularly.

A lawyer, whose office is located near the school, told The Nation that the pupils have been clashing daily as from 1:30 pm for several years.

He said the pupils started yesterday's clash at about the same time, but decided to attack some people whose workshops and offices are near the schools, vandalising their vehicles.

The lawyer said they attacked an auto-technician workshop near their school, adding that by the time the attack was over, over 10 vehicles had been vandalised.

The eyewitness said he feared a reprisal from the pupils of IMG today (Thursday), having suffered a loss yesterday. The victim is said to be an SS3 pupil.

Police spokesman Mr. Gbenga Fadeyi and the Commissioner for Education, Olasunkanmi Olaleye, were unavailable for comments.