

THE NATION

Friday, April 10, 2020

HOME NEWS POLITICS BUSINESS COLUMNISTS SPORTS ENTERTAINMENT MAGAZINEEDUCATION ONLINE SPECIAL EDITORIAL FORUM

Billboard crushes man to death in Aba

April 3, 2020 in City Beats, News Update

0

From Sunny Nwankwo, Aba

A man has died after a billboard fell on him during a storm in Aba, Abia State.

Another man trapped by the huge board was said to be fighting for his life at a hospital in the commercial city.

The incident happened on Wednesday, The Nation gathered.

Read Also: Six killed as truck crushes vehicle in Lagos

An eyewitnesses said the two persons were trapped under the heavy board before construction workers pulled them out with heavy-duty equipment.

One of them was dead, the other critically injured, the witness said.

Previous Post

Patients evacuated after wartime bomb discovered at German hospital

Next Post

COVID-19: Retired Doctors, Nurses volunteer services

Discussion about this post